

RULES AND REGULATIONS

APPLICATIONS: from 21th March 2016 to 15th July 2016.

Rule 1 - PARTECIPANTS: The contest is open for anyone who wants to participate. Inscription is free and implies that you accept the terms and conditions presented in these rules. It is not necessary that the participant is inscribed in the “14th AIC International canyoning meeting”.

Members of the jury and persons that are collaborating with the video contest are not allowed to participate.

Rule 2 – THEMES AND OBJECTIVES: The videos must have as the theme the activity of canyoning and the environments in which this activity is undertaken. The aim of the video must be to promote and extend the popularity of the sport. Any form of advertising is not permitted, either expressed or implied.

Rule 3 - REQUIREMENTS: Videos will only be accepted that conform to the regulations set out in Rule 2. The video must be unpublished, not displayed previously at other events, and must be the exclusive property of the participant inscribed in this competition.

The video must have a minimum resolution of 720 x 1028 pixel and have a duration of no more than 5 minutes. Those videos that do not conform to these requirements will be automatically disqualified.

Rule 4 - INSCRIPTION: To participate in the video contest, the filmmaker must submit their video via e-mail through the “WeTransfer” platform.

The e-mail address to which files must be sent, preferably in MP4 format, is cvogrig@gmail.com.

The deadline for the submission of videos is 15/07/2016, and is non-negotiable.

Rule 5 - JUDGES: The jury will be composed of 5 eminent persons that are guests of the “14th AIC International Canyoning Meeting”, and will be comprised of technical and equipment experts and from local authorities. The judges decision is final.

Rule 6 – EVALUATION AND WINNERS: At the “14th AIC International Canyoning Meeting”, the judges will meet to vote on the videos, which will be evaluated based on the videos production and adherence to the theme of the video contest.

The videos will be shown to the public at a special evening event during the meeting. They will subsequently be published in a special section of the websites of both www.canyoneast.it and AIC.

The winning filmmaker will be awarded an action-cam “GOPRO 4 black edition”, donated by the Italian Canyoning Association (AIC).

There will be no winner selected if the number of applicants to the video contest is less than 3.

Rule 7 – USE OF THE VIDEO AND COPYRIGHT: The participant, with the acceptance of these rules, must also declare, under their responsibility as the sole author of the video submitted to the video contest, that they hold the exclusive rights to both the images and soundtrack. The authors must also declare that persons depicted in the video, in accordance with Legislative decree no. 196/2003, have given their consent to the processing of personal data, including those of a sensitive nature, for the purposes related to the participation in this competition and that the persons depicted in the video have relinquished their rights to the author to reproduce, diffuse and use their images and do not claim any rights for the use, including economic gains, of the video. The participant therefore undertakes to release the organisation from any liability to third parties.

Each filmmaker is responsible for the content of their submitted work and authorises its use and publication. Each work must be previously unpublished, the penalty for those works that do not conform with this rule will be exclusion from the competition and the assumption of any responsibility regarding this by the participant.

By participating in the contest, the authors grant the AIC NON exclusive rights to the exploitation of the work for one year from the date of the awards event, indicative but not exhaustive, for all promotional and educational activities of AIC.
